

THE RESIDENCY HOUSE RULES OF HALLS OF RESIDENCE, DC REZIDENCE

I. INTRODUCTORY RULES

1. The Residency House Rules set out the rules of operation, residency and usage of student rooms, as well as the common rooms in the residential multifunctional property 'DC Residence' (hereafter DC R) which is operated by DOMINO Centrum, s. r. o. Company (hereafter DC).
2. DC R provides accommodation and other services, primarily to university students, as well as others, under the terms stated in these Rules and the Residency Agreement signed between DC and the Resident.
3. While making use of the DC R facility, all concerned are required to behave in a reasonable manner and avoid any activities that could lead to danger to life, health and property. Those making use of the facility are also required to maintain order and calm at the property, so as not to pose any danger to the good name and reputation of DC.

II. BASIC RULES

1. Accommodation in DC R may be reserved during the entire calendar year through, by e-mail, by telephone or personally at the DC R reception.
2. The Applicant is provided with accommodation under the Residency Agreement (hereafter The Agreement).
3. A model of the Residency Agreement and the Residency House Rules are available in DC R reception and on the website – www.dcrezidence.cz.
4. The Resident shall be issued, after the conclusion of the Agreement and during the arrival, with keys, chip, for the enter to accommodation area. The room is hand over to the Resident based on 'Handover document for taking over the room'.
5. The Resident shall, during the arrival, provide a confirmation of his/her university membership (until 20 days from date of accommodation) signed by the relevant representative of the University. In cases where questions arise as to the veracity of such confirmation, the Proprietor reserves the right to demand a confirmation signed by a certified member of the University.

III. PRICE OF RESIDENCY, METHODS OF PAYMENT AND PAYMENT TERMS

1. The price of Residency is governed by the current price list.
2. The price of Residency can be modified during the calendar year, namely on 1st March of the following year, in accordance with the rise of consumer prices, issued by CSU.
3. The monthly payment for the Residency is payable by the first working day of the given month for which Residency is agreed. The date of payment for the month during which the Resident is commencing the Residency is the day of taking up the Residency.
4. First monthly payment must be paid in day of arrival, as well as an extra security payment equal to the cost of one month's residency (first monthly payment can extraordinarily be paid in three days from arrival).
5. Payment for residency in DC R may be effected in the following ways:
 - (a) By direct debit or bank transfer
 - (b) By payment card
 - (c) In cash, in particular when commencing the Residency at the DC R reception.
6. The security payment shall be fully refundable at the conclusion of the residency, with the following exceptions: Should the Resident apply for an extension of the Residency, or in the event that the Resident owes DC R at the end of the term any compensation (for example, due to a failure to complete the full contracted period which attracted a discount, as per the current price list, or a failure to pay DC R for damage to building or equipment caused by the Resident, or any other debt to DC R). In case that the accommodated person give a notice earlier than 3 months from the start of the accommodation or from the effectiveness of the amendment to the contract, the Proprietor will ask the accommodated to provide registration (if required by Czech law) at the new address or return two originals of the addendums.
7. If the applicant books a room in DC R, reservation is confirmed assuming the composition within 10 days on account of the proprietor. In the event that the applicant does not start to accommodate the required (reserved) time, the proprietor returned to the applicant the guarantee if the applicant cancels their reservation at least 14 calendar days before arrival and provided that they are returned two copies of the contracts of accommodation (original) if the applicant before the accommodation provided. If the applicant books a room 14 days (or less) before arrival and reservation is canceled, the extra security payment is also not refundable.
8. Should the damage to the inventory or the debt for non-payment of accommodation reach the amount of the security payment, then the security payment will be reduced accordingly to amount caused by the Resident. Normal wear and tear is not included in this category. Should the security payment be partially or completely utilised, as stated in the first sentence of this paragraph, the Resident is obliged to fully pay the difference not later than 5 days from the security payment being used.
9. In case of delay in the payment for accommodation the Resident is obliged to pay a contractual penalty in the amount of 1 % of the monthly rent for each day of delay.

IV. TERMINATION OF RESIDENCY

1. The Residency is terminated:
 - a) after a period of time as stated in paragraph 1 of the Agreement;
 - b) by written agreement between both parties;
 - c) by withdrawal from the contract by either party;
 - d) by a termination notice submitted by the Resident or the Proprietor in accordance with the Rules of DC R.

2. The Proprietor can withdraw from the contract if the Resident:
 - a) has permitted accommodation by persons not authorised by DC R;
 - b) has not adhered to the terms stated in the Agreement;
 - c) has failed to pay for accommodation for one month or more;
 - d) despite the issuance of a warning, he/she has seriously infringed the code of conduct or otherwise seriously violated his/her obligations under the Rules of DC R,
 - e) violates the fire, security, health and safety Rules or hygiene regulations of the Czech Republic and House Rules, in particular if the Resident is under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances.
 - f) has not adhered (in time or enough) oral or written instructions / decision of management of DC Company.

3. The contractual parties shall consider, for example, the following behaviour as a serious breach of the terms of the Agreement: restricting the rights of other residents; vandalism in the DR C building; physical aggression; serious misconduct in the Proprietor's property or its surroundings.

4. The Proprietor has the right to withdraw from the contract by means of written advice of contract withdrawal. The Resident undertakes to fulfill all his/her obligations towards the Proprietor within the stated period. Should he/she not do so, he/she may be subject to eviction from the accommodation and shall be required to pay damages relating to such action.

5. The Proprietor shall advise the withdrawal from the contract in writing, by registered delivery. Such advice must include the reasons referring to relevant terms and conditions broken by the Resident. If the advice cannot be delivered to the last known address of the Resident, the advice will be displayed on the information board in the DC R reception and will be considered delivered.

6. The advice of withdrawal from the contract may only be delivered to the Resident in a written form. The notice period is one month and commences from the first day of the month following the delivery to the Resident's address of the termination notice (as per the Agreement).

7. The Agreement also terminates before the final date agreed if the Proprietor is unable to provide accommodation due to a decision of the Housing Department or Regional Health and Safety Department. Such decision dates from the issue date of legal notice.

V. Entry to the Premises, Night Time Rules

1. The DC R premises are open to the Residents for 24 hours; normally between midnight and 6.00 a. m. may be the building locked and the night porter at the reception provides entry or exit. In the case of questions being raised by DC R staff, the Resident has to provide further identification, such as ID card, passport or other suitable card.
2. Between 10.00 p. m. and 6.00 am all persons living in the building have to observe night-time quiet.

VI. Rights and Obligations of the Resident

1. The Resident has the right:

- a) to use both his/her own room as well as the common rooms and other services available;
- b) to repairs of all faults and defects in his/her room;
- c) to access to his/her room at any time during the day or night;
- d) to receive visitors, as per the Residency House Rules;
- e) to a change of his/her bed linen – 2x per month;
- f) to have his/her room cleaned by contract cleaners – for a fee direct to cleaning company or at the reception of DC R.
- g) To receive visitors, according to Article VII of these Rules.

2. The Resident is obliged:

- a) To follow the rules of DC R, to be thoroughly familiar with the fire and health & safety Rules, Fire Alarm and Building Evacuation Instructions, as well as to follow instructions of the Company personnel and the fire officer, if necessary. The Resident also needs to be familiar with the fire extinguishers, and fire hydrants and their location.
- b) To pay monthly rent and services.
- c) To maintain his/her room in good order and not use bedding without covers.
- d) To leave the premises immediately in the event of an evacuation announcement being made. Failure to do so is both undesirable and dangerous. Residents are obliged to evacuate the premises in accordance with the Fire Alarm Rules. Any damage to the fire equipment must be advised to the reception without delay.
- e) To refrain from damaging or using the fire extinguisher or manipulating the fire hoses. Misuse or theft of the fire extinguisher will be subject to legal action as causing a public nuisance or, alternatively, will attract a financial fine to compensate for breakage and damage of the equipment.

- f) To strictly observe the prohibition to handle, damage or interfere with the fire alarm system. Any such action will be treated as attempted destruction of the equipment and fines will be imposed according to the financial cost of the replacement.
- g) To switch off the room light when leaving the room, and especially when leaving the building.
- h) To maintain quiet at night and to respect the privacy of other residents.
- i) To advise without delay, the personnel on the reception of all faults, problems, shortcomings and needs for repairs both in the room and in the common areas of DC R; any such problems which prevent their full use or threaten health, safety or property of the Residents. The Proprietor is obliged to enter such notices into the Maintenance Book and remedy these without delay.
- j) To clean his/her room or order the cleaning services at reception DC R for payment and, after finishing the accommodation, pay the costs for disinfecting the room and buffing the carpet according to the Price List for repairs and services.
- k) To permit access by the cleaning staff once a month to clean the room.
- l) Regularly attend laundry (according to specified dates) for bed linen change; violation of this obligation is sanctioned as directed by cleaning company.
- m) Prior to vacating the accommodation, the Resident is required to clean the room and the bathroom and restore it to its original state, notwithstanding normal wear and tear; to return all items on the inventory list undamaged; to return keys and chip, either in person or through an authorized person in order to be removed from the Residents' List of DR C. Proven damage caused by the Resident will be paid for in cash at the DR C reception or deduction of his extra security payment.
- n) To move out on the final day of the contracted period. Furthermore, the Resident has to move out not later than three calendar days from the receipt of notice of contract withdrawal, as per this document's Section IV, para 5. Should the Resident not move out within the specified time, the Proprietor has the right to remove Resident's belongings and store these at specified premises at the Resident's cost.
- o) To protocol hand over to the Proprietor, or his agent, the rented premises in the same state as at the time of moving in, considering normal wear and tear. After the handover of the rental room, and possible cleaning by the Proprietor, the condition of the rooms will be described in the Handover Document at the time of the room handover. The same procedure is applied at the end of the stay by agreement.
- p) To remove all personal belongings and furnishings from the rented accommodation at the latest on the last day of Resident's term. Should he/she not do so, it is advised that all remaining belongings and furnishings will be destroyed within the following six months, and the costs charged to the Resident.

3. The Resident is prohibited from:
